ADDENDUM STATEMENT

I, Raymond John BYRON state:

1. I am making this further statement to clarify some statements made in, and add in some respects to, my statement signed 15 September 2011 ('first statement').
2. In respect of paragraph 5 of my first statement, I sent an email to Mr Mario De Leo on 24 May 2011 in which I requested, among other things, a copy of my original insurance policy (a copy of this email is attached to my first statement). Mr De Leo advised, by email to me on 27 May 2011, that his department was unable to provide policy documentation (a copy of this email is attached to my first statement).
On 31 May 2011, I received a call from a female person named Lois, a Team Leader at RACQ. During that phone conversation, Lois said that she had arranged for a copy of my certificate of insurance to be sent to me. I do not recall receiving a copy of the certificate of insurance. I did not receive, in response to my request, a copy of the RACQ Insurance Household Insurance Policy Product Disclosure Statement. I did receive from RACQ information about renewal of my policy some time in June.
3. In respect of paragraph 8 of my first statement, I received the following documentation relating to my insurance claim:
 - a. A scope of works from the Stream Group, by email, on 13 April 2011 (a copy of which is attached to my first statement);

- b. A remittance advice from RACQ Insurance, dated 10 May 2011, concerning the settlement of my claim. I have today been shown a copy of a letter from Rani, Customer Service Officer, RACQ Insurance, dated 10 May 2011. I cannot recall ever receiving this letter.
- c. A letter from Lois, Team Leader (Household Technical Team), RACQ Insurance, dated 31 May 2011 (a copy of which is attached to my first statement). This letter enclosed a document setting out details of the settlement figure (referred to further at paragraph 14 below).
4. In respect of paragraph 10 of my first statement, I have today seen records of RACQ Insurance which show that the phone conversation to which I refer in the first sentence of paragraph 10, occurred on 24 February 2011. That is the only call I recall receiving from RACQ Insurance to update me on the progress of my claim. I received other calls from RACQ Insurance, but these were in response to contact or requests made by me.
5. On 12 April 2011, I sent an email to Mr Bob Gates of MYI Freemans because I had not received any contact about my claim since he called me to advise me that RACQ had accepted my claim. A copy of this email is attached to this statement.
6. In respect of paragraph 12 of my first statement, I attach to this statement copies of email correspondence between me and Ms Diana Pollok on 13 April 2011.
7. In respect of paragraphs 13 and 20 of my first statement, I had tried to ring RACQ on and off between 24 February 2011, when I received the call from RACQ referred to in paragraph 4 above, and 14 April 2011, but aborted the calls after being on hold for up to 10 minutes.

8. In respect of paragraphs 14, 15 and 17 of my first statement, Craig from Mainz did further measurements at my house on 15 April. While Craig was at my house, I received a call from Mr De Leo. After Craig was finished, he said he would submit the documentation that day. I called RACQ on 18 April 2011 to find out what was happening with my claim. I received a return phone call from RACQ on 19 April 2011. I did not receive any further contact after this phone call, which prompted me to send the email to which I refer at paragraph 17 of my first statement, on 9 May 2011 (not 10 May 2011, as stated in paragraph 17).
9. In respect of paragraph 18 of my first statement, I have listened to the recording of the phone conversation to which I refer in paragraph 18. Having listened to the recording, I would not describe the demeanour of the person from RACQ who called me as 'indignant'. I recall that that was how I felt about the phone call at the time it occurred (because of my frustration with the process), although I did not express it at the time.
10. In respect of paragraphs 19, 20 and 21 of my first statement, I did not agree with Mr De Leo's statement in his email of 10 May 2011 that RACQ and I had 'reached an agreed resolution', because I was not invited to discuss the settlement figure, and I did not know, and had no way of telling, whether the settlement figure would be sufficient to cover the repairs to my property. I had to assume that the settlement figure given to me would be sufficient. I did not believe that Mr De Leo's statement truly represented my position and I expressed this view in my email to him on 11 May 2011 (copies of Mr De Leo's email of 10 May 2011 and my email of 11 May 2011 are attached to my first statement). However, Mr De Leo did not respond to my email, which suggested to me that he had misrepresented the situation. As it turns out, the settlement amount has not proven sufficient to cover the repairs needed at my home. For that reason, I state in paragraphs 2 and 20 of my first statement, that I am not satisfied with the settlement of my claim.

11. In respect of paragraph 22 of my first statement, I attach to this statement copies of email correspondence between me and Mr Neumann's office on 9 May 2011, 10 May 2011, 16 June 2011 and 1 July 2011.
12. In respect of paragraph 24 of my first statement, I attach to this statement a copy of my email to the Insurance Council of Australia on 30 May 2011.
13. In respect of paragraph 25 of my first statement, I received an email from Mr De Leo on 27 May 2011 which responded to some of my queries in my email of 24 May 2011, but Mr De Leo did not acknowledge my request for a full internal review of the settlement. A copy of those emails are attached to my first statement. I received a call from Lois on 31 May 2011 in which she acknowledged, and attempted to address, concerns, I had raised in my emails to Mr De Leo on 24 May 2011 and 30 May 2011 (copies of which are attached to my first statement). In addition, during the claims process I viewed a copy of the General Insurance Code of Practice on the Insurance Council of Australia website. I express my opinion in paragraph 25 of my first statement that I do not consider that RACQ followed the standards stipulated in the Code of Practice in my case. However, I understand the effect of section 4 of the Code of Practice.
14. In respect of paragraph 26 of my first statement, the letter I received from RACQ dated 31 May 2011 enclosed a document setting out the details of the settlement figure. A copy of the Stream report enclosed with the letter of 31 May 2011, is attached to this statement.
15. In respect of paragraph 37 of my first statement, when I read the submissions of RACQ Insurance and the Insurance Council of Australia, I considered that statements made in those submissions did not reflect my experience of the claims process and what I have heard of the experiences of others. I was expressing my opinion in paragraph 37.

G'day Bob

Just a quick note to touch base on my insurance claim on my home at [REDACTED] Esk. Qld.

You called me several weeks ago to advise that RACQ had accepted my claim, for which I am grateful, but have heard nothing since from Stream Group on anything further, and was wondering if I should be chasing them up.

I do realise everyone has a lot on their 'plate', but would appreciate any further information you may be able to provide on any progress.

Kind Regards

Thank you Diana, I have perused the Scope of Works attached.

I accept this Scope of Works and would like to proceed with repairs, providing the necessary adjustments are made to include the front entry foyer and front glass panel doors and surrounds in the Scope of Works. This area has not been included in the report, and will require adjustments to be made accordingly, as discussed in our telephone conversation this date.

Jennifer, I had a call from Kylie earlier to advise that you had fwd a copy of my email to ICA, and I am very grateful to you all for that.

It appears to have worked, as a little while ago I received a call from RACQ, (the little lady not very happy either, but she put on a polite front) advising that a payout of $63,970.48 would be in my bank a/c in 3 days.

The breakdown for that was:-

Fencing replacement	5309.43
Main Building repairs.....	49559.77
Laundry Repairs.....	9101.28
Total	63,970.48

The laundry repairs are separate because they were originally left off the Scope of Works they sent me. They would never tell me the quotes for the job, so I don't really know whether that is a fair price or not, it seems a bit low when I compare quotes for smaller 2 bedroom neighbouring cabins in the caravan park beside me ($78,000) but not much I can do about anyway I guess.

Just happy to be able to start getting things back in order, so I can settle poor old mum down and help her get her life back again.

I thank you all for your help, I really do appreciate it.

Kind Regards
 Ray Byron

Jennifer, I had spoken to you ages ago about the flood related matter, and subsequent claim with Racq.

A short while ago, I cc'd an email that I'd sent to them, just as a matter of courtesy and interest.

I don't expect any participation from Shayne, as there is nothing he can do anyway, these 'people' are a law unto their own.

It just may be of use to you in some way.

Shayne, further to my last email which I attached copies of all correspondence regarding my insurance claim and the 'progress' of it throughout, I would just like to advise of and include a recent development.

Notwithstanding all the previous records, at 9.08am on 28/5/11, I received a phone call from Streamgroup - completely 'out of the blue'.

In his opening 'address' the male caller said "Mr Raymond Byron"? I said "yes speaking" he said "this is (I missed his name) from Streamgroup, and I'm calling to advise that RACQ has accepted your claim and we are now ready to proceed with organising repairs."

As you can imagine, I was flabbergasted - I told him my name and address asked him to confirm who it was he was actually for, to which he replied "yes that's correct, we are ready to proceed with your claim!" In hindsight I simply should have gone along with all, but was so taken by surprise, I simply told him that RACQ had paid me out for the claim and asked him to repeat his name.

He failed to repeat his name but added that they had not been informed by RACQ, he would look into the matter, thanked me for the information - and hung up.

Mate I'd respectfully suggest, that if ever there was a claim worth investigating from beginning to end - to establish how these companies have been 'working' in securing their figures for shonky payout figures to helpless people in a long endured state of desperation - this one is it.

It is criminal behaviour in the extreme - and should be investigated and dealt with as such.

Dear Ray

Keeping the Insurance Industry Honest and Accountable

Insurance companies will be scrutinised as a result of their response to our summer of natural disasters.

I am pleased to announce that the Federal Government has heard of your experiences with your insurance companies this year and have now responded. From what I have seen and what you have told me, it was clear that the insurance industry needed to be more honest and accountable. I have spoken at length with the Prime Minister, Julia Gillard, and Assistant Treasurer, Bill Shorten, over the past few months and they have agreed to establish a Parliamentary inquiry into the responsiveness of the insurance industry during natural disasters; an inquiry I lobbied for because of what I saw first hand.

Not one insurance company came to any of the three insurance forums I held following the floods, to face their policy holders and answer their questions. I have spent the past months questioning the capacity of the insurance industry to respond quickly and in good faith to the high volumes of claims. My office was overwhelmed by the amount of people in Ipswich and the Somerset region who have suffered as a result of the inconsistent and slow response of some insurance companies.

The industry's responsiveness is now the subject of a new inquiry by the House of Representatives Standing Committee on Social Policy and Legal Affairs, of which I am a member. I have been concerned about the length of time it has taken for the insurance industry to process many claims, and about the claims handling process more generally.

I am also concerned about the widespread mismatch between what people thought their insurance policies covered, and the outcomes of their claims.

The inquiry will examine the insurance industry in respect to extreme weather events. In particular, the Committee will consider:

- the information provided to consumers about claims processing arrangements
- the timeliness of claims processing
- the impact of third-party consultants on timeframes for claims processing, and
- external and internal dispute resolution processes.

As part of the inquiry, the Committee will be conducting an online survey in order to assess issues concerning disaster-affected communities with respect to insurance claims.

The survey gives policy-holders who have made a disaster-related claim in the past five years the opportunity to comment on the coverage of their insurance policy, the adequacy of the information provided when choosing their policy, and the handling of their insurance claim.

I urge all home and business policy-holders to visit www.aph.gov.au/house/committee/spla/insurance/index.htm to complete the survey. We want to find innovative ways to bring policy holders and insurers together to achieve a better outcome for all parties.

The Committee will be making visits to several affected communities around Australia and holding public hearings in the second part of 2011, and anticipates reporting its findings in early 2012. For the full terms of reference, please visit the Committee's website at www.aph.gov.au/house/committee/spla/insurance/index.htm.

Please note that the Committee cannot investigate individual claims. However, I will continue to offer my support for your claims as they are challenged through Legal Aid.

Should you wish to discuss this further, or if there are any Federal Government matters I may assist you with please do not hesitate to contact my office on [REDACTED] or email me at [REDACTED]

Dear Sir/Madam

Below is a record of the only correspondence I have ever received from RACQ on my claim for flood damage to my home at [REDACTED] Esk.

We pay our Premiums in expectation of receiving the assistance and coverage we are promised - when it is needed - without having to 'fight' for we are entitled to.

My dealings with RACQ have provided a very clear indication of absolutely no concept whatsoever of the effect 'decisions' may have on the lives and emotional well being of the people involved in tragedies beyond their control.

I believe your office has previously been provided with a copy of my original email to RACQ dated 10/5/11, and all subsequent correspondence can be provided as an attachment to return email, if required.

On 13/5/11, my bank received a payout figure of $63,970.42 on my claim, based on a Scope of Works from Streamgroup.

To my knowledge there are several items of repair missing or omitted from that Scope of Works:-

- 1.. 1.7m x 2.1m Front entrance door and surrounds
- 2.. 3.0m x 1.85m front entrance foyer walls and tiles
- 3.. 1.7m x 21.m set of 2 bi-folding doors to dining room
- 4.. 80m side fencing joining unused road/reserve (continuation of [REDACTED]) non-shared
- 5.. 80m side fencing adjoining neighbour ([REDACTED]) half-shared
- 6.. Replacement of previously fitted insulation batts to the walls
- 7.. Laundry area (which was the only item listed as included in the payout figure received)

I have never received a 'revised' copy of that Scope of Works, nor been advised on what happened with the missing items of expense and repair.

In fact I have never received any correspondence or information from RACQ on my claim, other than a Remittance Advice date 10/5/11.

Having 'had enough' of the mind games and total disrespect for human rights, this information is forwarded to your office simply as an example of what has transpired in my individual case.

Ordinary people experiencing heartache and suffering as a result of these tragedies, and while attempting to make the best of a bad situation, are forced to contend with repulsiveness and 'neglect' - which sadly is now 'what we all have come to expect and in fact receive' from our insurance company in the 'unfortunate' event of a claim.

It is absolutely disgusting.

Kind Regards

Ray Byron

CLAIM DETAILS

Further Developments

We report now to clarify works which were not included or correctly scoped in the first instance, and are additional to the original scope of works. These costs are based on the quote supplied by the successful tenderer, Mainz Insurance Services, all except the left hand side shared fence as detailed below.

Laundry

Details as per scope sent to RACQ, but Mainz cost is $3054.74 including builder's margin.

Front entry

Details as per scope sent to RACQ, but Mainz cost is $3435.96 including builder's margin.

Fencing

(Front and rear at 20m each, already in original scope of works): $877.80 as quoted by Mainz

Right hand side, 80m, very high cost due to rough terrain: details as per additional scope, quoted by Mainz at $4514.40.

Left hand side, based on our consultant's estimation of costs as is usual when cash settling shared boundary fencing:

- $ 270.00 = 6 hours at $45 per hour to remove existing fencing
- $1000.00 = materials $12.50 x 80 metres
- $1000.00 = labour at $12.50 for 80 metres
- $ 183.50 = waste disposal
- $2453.50 - subtotal
- $ 245.35 = GST
- $2698.85 - Total estimate repair cost of fence
- x 50% as shared, total amount payable for shared left side fence = $1349.43.

As the successful tenderer, Mainz quoted $49944.31 for the job as per the original scope of works. To this must be added the laundry, the front entry, and the right hand side fencing (left side cash settlement, front and rear in main scope), bringing the total to $60949.41 if repairs were to be authorised and the left side cash settled with the insured. Or, a total of $62298.84 for RACQ to cash settle the claim in its entirety.
